CHILDREN'S DAY

For many, many years our churches have observed the first Sunday in June as Children's Day for Foreign Missions. It is very fitting. Our foreign work has suffered untold hardships the past year and the budgets for foreign fields have been mutilated beyond repair. An extra large offering this year will do much to repair the breaches. Unified Promotion, Missions Building, Indianapolis, Indiana, will furnish programs for observance of the Day if you send your offering to them.

GRANTS PASS DEDICATION

The auditorium has been remodelled and is greatly improved both in appearance and usefulness. It was an auditorium before; now it is a sanctuary. It was dedicated with an all day service on April 6, with the pastor, W. I. Palmer, presiding, and assisted by the State Secretary, C. F. Swander. Other pastors of the city were present with congratulatory words, and R. W. Coleman, Medford, and Alton Brostrom, Ashland, brought greetings from their congregations. The church is to be complimented on a forward step.

NINETY AND NINE NEWS

Ray C. Smith, President

Arrangements have been made for a series of men's rallies in Eastern Oregon under the leadership of B. Ross Evans, starting at Baker on Manday, April 28, and continuing through the week at La Grande, Heppner, Enterprise and Nyssa. This is another progressive step for the Ninety-and-Nine work, and it is hoped that greater activity among men will result therefrom.

Lloyd Hurt, of Elgin, expects to cooperate in the rally at La Grande and stated in a recent letter, "We have been discussing some greater work for the men of our church and feel that the Ninety-and-Nine Men's Movement can help us." Many have discovered this to be true and we trust this church is no exception.

Brother Evans will hold a meeting at the Nyssa Church under the sponsorship of the Ninety-and-Nine, starting May 4. J. S. Beem is the pastor and there have been 4 baptisms recently.

Fifty-six boys have already been signed up in Coos Bay District for the Southern Oregon Boy's Camp at Fir Point, July 27-August 3. With a corresponding response from other churches the attendance should reach to the 100 mark. State Chairman Lloyd Arnett anticipates the Turner Camp will also go over the goal of 100 set some time ago. Reports from over the state indicate that many churches not represented before will send boys. The date at Turner is August 3-10.

The Ninety-and-Nine class at Baker put on an "Old Boy" program with stunts, music, and a short play, "Moonbound Husbands," featuring an all star caste including Lloyd Rea, Will Newton, Blaine Vogt, Ernest Andrews, J. B. McDowell, and the pastor, Len Fishback. The money taken in, $45.00, will be used to pay for a new lawn around the church and $5.00 has been sent in for state work.

300 men and boys attended the Northwest Rally at Central Church in Portland on March 24. Howard Cole, boy's camp dean; Gene Robinson, director; Vern Kullowatz and Jess Johnson, instructors, led the discussions. H. J. DeWees, of St. Johns, and Dallas Meserve, of Central, exchanged greetings on behalf of the dads and lads.

The May Rally of this district will be held at Corbett on the 26th and the new board of directors will be elected at that time. The income from the dinner will be used to buy new pews for the beautifully decorated building. District President, Dr. Beatty, is expecting at least 200 men.

Buck Winters of the Hermiston Church recently ordered 50 more buttons. These fellows are really going after them.

McKenzie District (Lane County), under the leadership of Vic Hershiser and Willett Jesse, expects to furnish New Testaments for a new church at Wolf Creek. Elmer Patterson of First Church, Eugene, is chairman of the tract and literature committee. Regular meetings will be held on the 4th Monday of odd numbered months.

Northwest District has offered to provide New Testaments to be used in the Ninety-and-Nine Breakfast Club at the Union Gospel Mission, and also for the East Side Mission in Portland.

John Abderhalden and Wallace Jones, assisted by the men and Christian Endeavorers of Willamina Church, are holding services on Sunday afternoons in a country church about 15 miles from Willamina.

Willamette District has paid another $50.00 on their state pledge, bringing their payments up to date for the first half of the year. A good example for others to follow. Remittances should be sent to Edwin P. DeWees, Treasurer, 9022 No. Mohawk Ave., Portland, Ore.

A new folder, "Christ's Supreme Task for Men," by Earl Fife, is now available through K. I. Dixon, 4621 S. E. 71st Ave., Portland. Also he has a supply of Ninety-and-Nine buttons at 2½ cents each in quantities.

Attractive gold and enamel buttons for Ninety-and-Niners will be available as soon as 100 are ordered at $1.25 each, or silver and enamel at 85 cents. Orders with remittances should be sent to Clair Martin, 1324 S. E. Sherret St., Portland.

O. G. Wheeler, of Tillamook, reports 41 men at their March meeting with Dr. I. George Nace as speaker. Wayne Overholser is president; A. J. Swett and Al Latham are Vice Presidents; O. G. Wheeler, Secretary; and Frank Hunter, Treasurer.

E. V. Snodgrass, of Myrtle Creek, is Vice-President of the local group. Wm. Vaughn is President, and Alvin Newton is Secretary.

Roseburg Ninety-and-Nine men plan to furnish a New Testament to every grade school pupil who has none of his own. Pastor John Barney is cooperating with the other churches in Douglas County with a view to uniting the men of all the churches in a county district. Evangelist Ross Evans will be in a meeting at Oakland in June.

80 men attended the Coos Bay District rally at Marshfield in April with a challenging message by Harry Baird on

McCALLUM EVANGELISTIC PROJECT

Mrs. Gladys Leake, State Secretary

The Women's Missionary Societies are working enthusiastically for their state project, the evangelistic work in China, under the leadership of James McCallum. The goal for this work is $500.00 It should be understood that, in order to the success of this project, and if it is to represent a real victory, the total giving of the groups for the year must be at least $500.00 over and above the giving of last year. This means that your society must raise as much as it did last year and, in addition, its proportionate share of the $500.00 All gifts to the China Evangelistic Work will be counted on your goals for the year. The total gifts reported toward this project during the third quarter totals $389.26. Gifts have been received this quarter from the following: Albany, $60.00; Ashland, $4.90; Astoria, $7.50; Corvallis, $14.50; Dallas, $12.00; Falls City, $3.35; Gladstone, $6.00; Grants Pass, $7.30; Hillsboro, $21.68; Hood River W. M. S. and Young Matrons, $13.25; Jefferson, $2.15; Klamath Falls, $5.34; La Grande, $2.84; McMinnville, $6.35; Medford, $14.88; Milton, $21.36; Portland Central, $10.45; Portland Englewood, $5.00; Portland First, $75.00; Portland Kern Park, $22.22; Portland Mallory, $5.65; Salem First, $50.00; Tillamook, $14.64; Vernonia, $2.90.

CHINA TRAVEL EMERGENCY FUND

All of our people throughout the state will be happy to know of the enthusiastic and generous response of the churches to the Emergency Travel Fund for the return of the women and children of our China missionaries. Our churches have given during this quarter a total of $463.96. The general brotherhood aim for this fund has been oversubscribed by several thousand dollars and the fund closed. We rejoice in our worthy part in this victory. This giving is entirely above all regular goals. Those reporting gifts to this fund are as follows: Corvallis, $32.95; Eugene, $28.85; Eugene Cecil Harding Circle, $14.05; Forest Grove, $30.82; Halfway, $7.00; Hood River, $26.00; Jefferson, $1.40; Klamath Falls, $10.00; Medford, $28.50; Medford Intermediate Triangle, $9.00 self denial offering; Milton, $15.50; Portland First, $220.00; Portland Mallory, $25.00; Silverton, $5.00; Springfield, $9.89.

NEW SOCIETIES

Crabtree, Mrs. Pauline Slack, President; Tillamook Circle, Mrs. Claude Frisbie, Counsellor; Dallas Y. M. M. S., Mrs. Ervin York, President; Dallas Circle, Ruth Dornhecker, President.

TURNER MEMORIAL HOME

E. J. Gilstrap, Supt., Turner, Oregon

This is a Home of the Church giving special attention to the care of our aged missionaries and preachers. One part of the homesite has been set aside and designated exclusively for ministers of the Churches of Christ.

The cottage plan is used. This is ideal for old couples. (The main building is used to care for those who are left alone.)

The location and surroundings are attractive. Our guests enjoy being near the historic old tabernacle and the state convention gatherings.

The ministry of this Home has been sustained by many loyal Christian friends and classes and church groups.

This help to our old ministers is not endowed or underwritten, but must depend upon the continued support of the people of God. The Home is filled now. A new cottage is very much needed. We have had to defer help that should be given at once. Our capacity will be increased as funds are made available from time to time.

During the last two and one-half years two cottages (the Sickafoose and the Figueroa) have been built at a cost of about $4,700.00. This has been contributed by our friends. Besides this, the assistance from these contributed funds to our old preachers has been continuous. Our guests who are not from ministers' families are not supported from these contributions, but from the Davis' Estate.

Since the care of worthy old people was started here this Home has helped 45 aged men and women. Some of these have needed the help desperately. The T. M. H. family is made up of deserving, needy, old people who are appreciative and are loved by this community.

The corporation is controlled by a Board of five Trustees. Its by-laws require that all its officers shall be members of the Church of Christ.

A cordial invitation is given to our friends to call at the Home when you are at our state convention.

MRS. EMMA FREYTAG

Word reaches us that Sister Emma Freytag, long time member of the Gladstone church, passed away on March 11, 1941. The sympathy of many friends goes out to the ones left behind.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOLS

It is time to begin thinking about that Vacation Church school. You will want to commence it probably in June. Do not wait until the last minute to make up your plans and get your supplies. This office will help you to discover what you need and point out where you can get supplies.

NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

K. E. Burke, President

A cordial invitation is extended to you to attend the commencement exercises at Northwest Christian College.

Friday, May 30, 8 p. m., graduation speech recital at the First Christian Church in Eugene.

Sunday, June 1, 3 p. m., musical vesper in the college chapel featuring vocal and instrumental music. 4 p. m., tea at Rehm Hall for all college students, faculty, and guests. 7:30 p. m., Baccalaureate service at the First Christian Church in Eugene with Guy L. Drill, Salem, as speaker.

Monday, June 2, 4 p. m., Margaret Mills, organ recital at the Presbyterian Church. 8 p. m., Play, "There Will Always Be An England," in college chapel. This play was written by one of the college students.

Tuesday, June 3, 9:30 a. m., regular June meeting of the College Board of Trustees. 3 p. m., last college chapel service. 5 p. m., Alumni banquet at First Christian Church. 8 p. m., Commencement Exercises, Benjamin B. Baird, Bakersfield, will be the speaker. Louisa F. Kellems, teacher and counsellor of ministerial students for forty years, will be recognized with an honorary degree.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

In spite of the fact that Northwest Christian College has the second largest Bible College enrollment in our Brotherhood the demand for our graduates is greater than the supply. Church leaders who can you send to the college next year to prepare for Christian service as evangelist, minister, missionary, song leader, pastor's assistant, or Bible school worker? Men are needed for the ministry, good men, consecrated men, men of determination and hard work. Will your church make such a contribution to the ministry? Send in the names of prospective students so we can send them literature on the college.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Several groups have visited the campus this year. Albany, Lebanon, Sweet Home, and other church groups have spent a day on the campus visiting classes, the library, museum, dormitories, and chapel. You, too, are cordially invited to visit.

EASTER VACATION

The majority of the student body were engaged actively in some kind of evangelistic effort during the week preceding Easter. Incomplete reports indicate many added to the church through the efforts of the students. Meetings were held from Washington to California.

STUDENT PREACHERS

Student preachers travel many miles

DR. SHANNON HONORED

Dr. Thompson L. Shannon, pastor of First Church, Portland, has been honored with a membership in the Hazen Foundation, which publishes religious books. With the membership goes attendance at an annual retreat of a week's duration with expenses paid. This preferment is always in recognition of scholarship. Congratulations, Thompson!

each week-end to reach preaching points. One student goes as far north at Tacoma, and another goes as far south as Myrtle Creek. Over 40 young men are out preaching each Lord's Day.

NINETY AND NINE

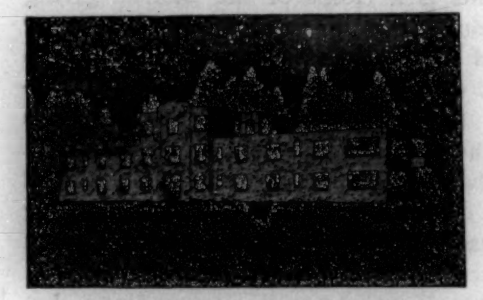
"Weighed in the Balances." The next meeting will be May 20 at North Bend. B. D. Neavall is president.

Remember to not forget the Men's Day Program at the Turner Convention, Saturday, June 28. Some of the high points will be The Tan-Ditters, Ross Evans, baseball game, the banquet, 100 voice chorus, and the great Bible class of 500 on Sunday morning.

NORTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN HOME



Mrs. Laura K. Hill, Supt.

All connected with Northwestern Christian Home are deeply grateful to the many men whose volunteer help has made possible the new cement walk from the road to the front of the building, the changed driveway and the setting of many plants. A section of the new lawn has been made where it will be in the shade on summer afternoons.

To April 20 there have been no deaths, and no admissions since last report. The application of one woman was approved and her name placed on the waiting list.

Recent changes at Northwestern Christian Home brought to the resident staff a graduate nurse with excellent qualifications for our work.

Mrs. Clara Stivers Vernon, of Santa Barbara, California, will be on duty at Northwestern Christian Home while the superintendent, Mrs. Laura K. Hill, is gone to the International Convention.

Mrs. Myron L. Pontius, of Jacksonville, Illinois, was a visitor of Mrs. Hill and Northwestern Christian Home. With members of the Board and their wives and husbands she greatly enjoyed a showing of four reels of Oregon pictures by Dr. Vernon Brown.

For the year ending June 30, 1940, contributions to benevolences from the northwestern area totalled $5,708.31, which was $1,587.18 short of the maintenance of Northwestern Christian Home for the same period. Here is a comparison between contributions to June 30, 1940, with those to April 19, 1941.

Montana	$ 210.39	$ 215.24
North Idaho	114.83	133.73
South Idaho	405.43	506.29
Oregon	2,263.77	2,194.05
Washington	2,677.41	2,378.17

We must press on toward closing the gap between contributions and costs.
